

Student Tutoring Achievement for Reading

Comprehension Reading Levels D-I Lesson #1

Levels A-C

On levels A-C the student is asked the following:

Say: “What do you remember about the story?”

The student will then tell you some things about the story that he or she remembers. Recall is limited at these levels.

Levels D-I

Fiction

1. Say: “Tell me what happened at the beginning of the story.”
If the student does not remember, return to the book and look at the picture or text at the beginning of the story. The student, after looking at the picture or text, should be able to recall what happened at the beginning of the story.
2. Then say: “Tell me what happened in the middle of the story.”
If the student does not remember, return to the book and look at the pictures or text in the middle of the story. The student, after looking at the pictures or text, should be able to recall what happened in the middle of the story.
3. Then say: “Tell me what happened in the end of the story.”
If the student does not remember, return to the book and look at the pictures or text at the end of the story. The student, after looking at the pictures or text, should be able to recall what happened at the end of the story.
4. Then say: “Tell me your favorite part of the story.” Allow the student to respond. Try to keep the response brief.

Nonfiction

1. Say: “Tell me three things you learned from reading the book.”
